GEORGIA'S DAY AT JAMESTOWN, VA.

President Roosevelt Takes Part In the Exercises.

MILITARY AND NAVAL DISPLAY

Governor Terrell, of Georgia, Also Participated in the Exercises—Formal Opening of Bulloch Hall, Georgia's Building at Jamestown.

Exposition Grounds, Norfolk, Va., June 11.—Brought back to the Jamestown exposition by the formal opening of Bulloch Hall, the ancestral home of his mother at Roswell, Georgia, and reproduced here as the Georgia state building, President Roosevelt on Monday was, for the second time, the central figure of an attractive exposition program.

Outside of the features arranged in connection with the celebration of Georgia day, the military and naval spectacle was not greatly dissimilar to that which marked the visit of the president when the exposition was thrown open on April 26th. He was the guest of the exposition for about nine hours, arriving with a special party including Mrs. Roosevelt, on the Mayflower at 8:20 a. m.

After receiving the Georgia officials on board and with them as his guests, reviewing the fleets assembled in the Roads, he was landed at the exposition grounds at about 11 o'clock. He made a speech as a part of the Georgia day exercises in the forenoon and spoke another at the convention of the National Editorial association in the auditorium in the afternoon. He reviewed the parade of the military and naval forces, visited the negro exhibit, participated in the presentation of a silver service by the state of Georgia to the battleship named for her, attended a reception given at the Georgia building by the Georgians in honor of himself and Mrs. Roosevelt and visited informally the New York state building.

The weather provided another Roosevelt day. There was just enough clouds to break the heat of the sun and yet leave the day bright and clear. From early morning every street car and boat arriving at the exposition grounds deposited hundreds of passengers at the gate.

Every part of the exposition ground except the "War Path" was covered by the president in his strenuous day. The New York building and the Georgia building and the negro exhibits are situated at extreme opposite ends of the grounds, and the reviewing stands and the auditorium where the speeches were made, are in about the center of the grounds. The reservation was thronged with the greatest attendance since the opening of the exposition, and the president was given a reception fully as enthusiastic as that accorded him on the occasion of his first visit.

It was a distinguished party that reviewed the assembled war vessels from the Mayflower. Immediately on the arrival of that vessel the party of Secretary of the Navy Metcalfe was landed from the Dolphin. The others to join the president was Governor Terrell, of Georgia, and W. H. Mitchell, of the Georgia state committee.

Passing over the same course as when he visited the exposition on the opening day, the president reviewed the fleets of seven nations, six in addition to the United States. The sea fighters were in gala attire, the flag of the different countries represented making a striking picture.

Dined with the Kaiser.

Berlin, June 11.—Baron Speck Von Sternburg, German ambassador to the United States, and Baroness Speck Von Sternburg dined with the emperor and empress Saturday. The ambassador afterwards conversed with his majesty on American affairs.

Terrorist Attempts Suicide.

St. Petersburg, June 11.—A terrorist named Chernaut, alleged to be implicated in the recent plot against the life of Emperor Nicholas, shot himself in an attempt to commit suicide Monday in a nearby suburb

CHILD AVENGES DEED OF BLOOD

Ten-Year-Old Girl Is Instrumental in Circassian Vendetta.

St. Petersburg, June 11—Although after half a century of Russian occupation, private vendetta is still as rife as ever in the Caucasus, where a Circassian would never think of invoking the tribunal to punish a wrong which he could avenge himself, a case of vengeance has just occurred, which has staggered even that wild people.

In the village of Guisingoule, in the Kutais region, one peasant had been murdered by another, and the victim's relatives at once assembled to devise means of exacting with their own hands blood for blood. As, however, the assassin and his friends had taken elaborate precautions, and lived practically in a state of siege, no opportunity presented itself, and matters appeared to be in an impasse.

In this emergency the murdered man's youngest sister, a girl of 10, charged herself with the duty of wreaking the family vengeance, and accomplished it with grim completeness. Keen-witted enough to understand that her tender years would disarm suspicion, she first secreted a knife in her clothing, and then sallied out as though for a child's play.

Finding that, as she expected, no notice was taken of her, she even skipped playfully into the house of the murderer himself, where she saw the head of the family, an old man of 75 stretched out on the floor asleep with nobody near him.

Stealing up to him she drew her knife, and in an instant had plunged it deep into his throat. When seized, she calmly proclaimed that to avenge her brother was a duty, and that nobody but herself had known of her purpose. The authorities are at a loss how to proceed with such a precocious young fury.

TWENTY-NINE KNOWN DEAD.

Casualties from Wind and Water in Kentucky and Illinois.

Chicago, June 11.—Twenty-nine known dead and forty persons injured constitute the list of casualties resulting from the storms of tornado severity which swept over southern Illinois and Indiana and central Kentucky Friday and Saturday.

These fatal visitations came in the shape of cloudbursts, high winds and electrical disturbances. The property damage will reach many thousand dollars. Houses were swept away, bridges demolished and thousands of acres of growing crops destroyed.

Gradyville, Ky., was the worst sufferer. A cloudburst deluged that village of 150 persons shortly after midnight, and twenty-one persons were drowned. At New Minden, Ill., a tornado killed five people and injured half a dozen others. At York, Ill., on the Wabash river, three persons were killed and thirty injured by a tornado which descended upon the town. At Duquern, Ill., many houses were blown down around the outskirts of the town and four persons were injured.

$100,000 FIRE AT NORFOLK.

Princess Anne Hotel Burned—Narrow Escape of 50 Guests.

Norfolk, June 11.—The Princess Anne hotel, at Virginia Beach, Va., was destroyed early Monday by fire originating in the kitchen. More than fifty guests had narrow escapes. Two negro chambermaids are reported as missing.

The Norfolk Southern railroad depot and Princess hotel bowling alleys were destroyed. The loss is estimated at over $100,000.

Body Found in River.

Millen, Ga., June 11.—The body of a dead man was found in the Ogeechee river Friday night by Sam McGhee, a negro fisherman, just below the Millen and Southwestern railroad crossing. Coroner Westley Lightfoot and party went out to recover the body and hold an inquest, but decomposition had set in to such an extent that when a rope was placed around the neck to raise the body to the boat the head pulled off, and the face destroyed. Identification was impossible, and there is no clew as to how he met death. The body was that of a negro.

AFFAIRS IN RUSSIA GROW MORE SERIOUS

Murder Is Common and Pillage of Frequent Occurrence.

ORGANIZED GANGS OF TERROISTS

Statistics Show That 158 Persons Were Suffocated, Eighty Killed and Seventy-Eight Wounded Within the Period of One Week.

London, June 11.—A St. Petersburg dispatch to the Telegraph says that the internal condition of Russia is growing more serious. Murder is common; pillage has become the means of livelihood and incendiarism is but an expression of the peasant's dissatisfaction with the landowners.

Statistics show that during the week ending Saturday, 158 persons were suffocated, 80 killed and 76 were wounded.

In some of the provinces organized gangs of terrorists are holding up the travelers, and many cases of incendiarism are reported.

FLOWERS PLACED ON GRAVES.

Confederate Memorial Day Exercises At Arlington Cemetery.

Washington, June 11—Confederate memorial day exercises were held on Sunday in the Confederate part of the Arlington national cemetery under the auspices of the Confederate Veterans' association, the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Southern Relief society of the District of Columbia.

John G. Capers, of South Carolina, the newly appointed commissioner of internal revenue, was the orator of the day, and the Thirteenth United States cavalry band furnished music for the occasion.

The graves of the old confederate dead in the cemetery were decorated and then all united in decorating the tomb containing the bodies of the unknown union dead. The grave of General Joseph Wheeler was among those decorated.

The Southern Cross, presented by the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, was unveiled by Miss Carro Benning Green, camp sponsor, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Gould, maid of honor. The procession of those who decorated the graves was led by a chorus arranged in the form of a cross.

59 Per Cent in Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss., June 11.—Commissioner of Agriculture Blakeslee has given out a bulletin showing crop conditions on June 3, and estimating the average condition of the cotton on that date at 59 per cent, against government estimate of 65 per cent. The difference is attributed to the considerable bad weather between May 31 and June 3, the dates on which the data was compiled. Blakeslee estimates the cotton acreage at 83 per cent and the corn acreage at 99 per cent, or above normal. The average condition of the corn crop is now placed at 69 per cent.

Death Summons Dr. Neville.

Columbia, S. C., June 11—Dr. W. G. Neville, president of the Presbyterian college, of South Carolina, located at Clinton, died Saturday after a short illness from heart disease. Dr. Neville was born in Oconee county, July 6, 1855. He graduated from Adger college in 1878, and from Princeton Theological seminary in the year 1881. He became pastor at Lexington, Ky., in 1890, resigning in 1893 to accept a charge at Yorkville, this state, which he served until he became president of the Presbyterian college of South Carolina in 1904.

Boxerism Reviving in China.

Victoria, B. C., June 11.—The steamer Bellerophon has brought the news of the revival of the boxers in North China. Yuen Ship Kais officials have arrested numerous Chinese recently from Ching practicing boxerism and inducing natives to smear their doorposts with blood on the assumption that this renders the occupants invulnerable when fighting.

RACE CLASH IN MISSISSIPPI.

Whites and Negroes Engage in Pistol Battle Near Yazoo City.

Yazoo City, Miss., June 11.—As a result of a racial clash near here on Saturday, three negroes are dead, two others were severely whipped and four white men were wounded.

The trouble originated when T. D. Kirk, a plantation owner, approached a group of negro tenants to instruct them relative to some field work. This angered the negroes, and one of them, Abe Johnson, cursed Kirk, who, because of the number of his antagonists, and being unarmed, retreated towards his home to secure a weapon.

Johnson and his three sons proceeded to their cabin on a like mission, and just before Kirk reached his house he was overtaken and fired on by one of the younger negroes. Attracted by the shooting, two of Kirk's brothers and T. F. Cheatham ran to his assistance, and were fired on and wounded. They returned the fire, killing Green Johnson, one of their opponents.

The Johnsons then barricaded themselves in their home, and defied arrest. The house was surrounded and protection offered the inmates if they would surrender.

On their refusal, the building was attacked, two of the negroes killed and two others severely whipped.

KILLED WIFE AND SELF.

Tragedy Occurs In Prominent Missippian's Home.

Biloxi, Miss., June 11.—Captain John Walker shot and killed his wife and then killed himself shortly after luncheon Sunday. Captain Walker was an officer in the United States navy with Perry on his memorable trip to Japan; was a captain in the confederate navy with command of the Mississippi and Louisiana coast fleet, and at the time of his death was president of the Bank of Biloxi. He was one of the best known men in this section of the south.

The tragedy occurred during a dispute between husband and wife.

The servants in the house say that the aged couple, both of whom were over 70 years of age, had a violent quarrel during luncheon. Five minuates elapsed between the shooting of his wife and Captain Walker's suicide.

During the interval he wrote a note requesting that J. H. Walker, his son, in New Orleans, be notified.

B. Y. P. U. Meets at Waycross.

Waycross, Ga., June 11.—Between 500 and 600 delegates from all sections of Georgia and representing practically every union in the state, will march on the city of Waycross this week for the thirteenth annual convention of the Georgia Baptist Young People's union. The local union of Waycross, which will act as host to the state organization, has left no stone unturned in the preparation for the coming gathering of Christian young people of the Baptist denomination, and the splendid program for the occasion, which has just been completed, is ample justification for the prediction that the thirteenth annual meeting will outstrip all previous gatherings.

New Railway Wants Charter.

Bainbridge, Ga., June 11.—Recent Bainbridge papers carry a petition for a charter for a new railroad company to be known as the Gulf Line Railway company. The petition is signed by a number of prominent men of Hawkinsville, Savannah, Atlanta and Macon. The general direction of the proposed road will be southwest from Hawkinsville through Bainbridge to some point on the Florida line, and thence in a southerly or southwestern direction through Florida to the Gulf of Mexico. The principal offices of the corporation will be in Atlanta.

Negro Shot and Killed White Man.

Birmingham, Ala., June 11.—Johnnie Holston was shot and killed Sunday by a negro at McDonald's camp on the Louisville and Nashville railroad's new construction camp, near Parkwood, south of Birmingham. Liquor was at the bottom of the trouble. The dead man's home is in Chattanooga, Tenn., and the remains will be sent to that city for burial.

$250,000 PER YEAR ASKED BY MRS. GOULD

Actress Wife Wants Alimony Fixed at That Sum.

WHAT HOWARD GOULD IS WORTH

Phase of Legal Battle Between Goulds Most Interesting to Husband Is the Amount of Alimony He Will Have To Pay.

New York, June 11.—Howard Gould has decided not to go abroad this year. Instead, he will remain in New York for the legal battle with his wife, formerly Miss Katherine Clemmons, the actress, who is suing him for separation and alimony which she wants fixed at $250,000 a year.

This is the first summer Howard Gould will have spent in New York since he was a youth. Always before he has either cruised in northern and European waters, or has sought the cool breezes of the Switzerland mountains.

The phase of the legal battle between the Goulds just now which is interesting the husband most, is the amount of alimony he will be obliged to pay. He and his attorneys are preparing a statement of his wealth, knowing it will be demanded by the court, or by a referee, should one be appointed after the motion by Mrs. Gould's attorney for alimony and attorney's fees.

Mr. Gould has announced that his annual income is about $600,000 from a fortune of about $12,000,000.

Mrs. Gould says she can prove her husband owns and has an interest in properties which bring his income up to more than $1,000,000. Upon this basis, Mrs. Gould has decided to ask the court to allow her $250,000 a year alimony. Cases will be cited by Mrs. Gould's attorneys in which the court has allowed a wife one-fourth of her husband's income.

THIRD TERM BOOM.

New York Congressman Says Roosevelt Is Certain of Another Term.

Washington, D. C., June 11—The Roosevelt third term boom took on new life Saturday when Representative Sherman, of New York, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, declared after leaving the White House that the president is certain of another nomination and election. Sherman's positive declaration following a conference with the president attracted no little attention here in Washington.

"Of course, the whole New York delegation is solid for Roosevelt," said the Republican campaign chairman. "The whole country is solid for him, for that matter, and of course he is going to be nominated and elected. He will not let us present his name to the convention, but when somebody else does it the New York delegation will be there to vote for him."

Some of his listeners inquired if the president would not refuse to let anybody present his name; but Mr. Sherman laughed.

"He can't control anybody but his own delegates. In fact, the average man is lucky if he can do that."

Brigands Form Association.

Rome, June 11.—An international association of brigands has been unearthed in Sicily by the police. Two of the leaders are in custody. From documents seized it was learned that the local band has branches in America. The association worked in Sicily and its accomplices in America disposed of the plunder. The police hope, with the aid of the correspondence seized, to arrest some of the accomplices in America.

Constable Shot and Killed.

Birmingham, Ala., June 11.—Constable J. H. Hollis was shot and killed at Littleton, near Birmingham, early Saturday night by Fred Burke. Burke was terrifying the town when Hollis attempted to arrest him. He was caught and placed in jail after the murder.

T. & J. ENGINEERS.

They Will be Here Today to Consult Committee of Citizens.

The engineers of the Tampa and Jacksonville railroad, formerly the Gainesville and Gulf, in compliance with a request of the joint committee of the Board of Trade and the representative citizens who met with the representatives of the various railroad companies entering Gainesville in reference to a union depot a few days ago, will arrive in the city today for the purpose of conferring with the committee in regard to a suitable site for the proposed station, etc.

It will be remembered that at this meeting the Board of Trade and citizens pressed their claims for a union station to the representatives who were present, and all roads were represented. These agents expressed themselves as being perfectly satisfied to comply with any reasonable request in the line of a union station or anything else which might be made by the people of Gainesville, and suggested that a committee of citizens be appointed to meet and consult the respective engineers as regarded a site, the kind of building desired, the probable cost, etc. The meeting concurred with the suggestion, and appointed the committee, of which there were five, with B. F. Hampton as chairman.

The committee several days ago requested the railroads to instruct their engineers to meet the committee within ten days from June 3. The only notice taken of the request so far as the committee is concerned was the information that the engineers of the Tampa and Jacksonville would be here today.

It would look as this might be showing Gainesville a cold palm so far as the other roads are concerned. The people of Gainesville, through the committee, want to be fair, but those roads who do not respond to this request within the prescribed time will hear something else.

Today will tell the tale.

SOPHIA LOST HER MONEY

But Henry Missouri is Doing Time on the Streets to Pay.

There was a case of unusual interest in the mayor's court Monday morning. At least, it was a case of unusual interest to the lower class of colored people, who are represented in the court every day, because it was a charge of theft of money, something which is seldom heard of or reported to the police among this class. While it is a recognized concession that this class may impose on their associates for food, and may even sometimes collude in the pilfering or robbery of some one of higher class, it is seldom a fact that they will rob each other.

But this is one of the cases. Sophia Jackson was a kind of sweetheart, it seems, of Henry Missouri. Sophia trusted him with everything she said, from her confidence to her money, and he finally took advantage of the woman by stealing her pocketbook, containing $2.35.

As soon as Sophia lost the money, realizing that she had no other company that evening, she accused Missouri of taking it, and notified Marshal Arnow.

Missouri was arrested in a South University street place, but swore up and down that he knew nothing of the money. He was taken to the house occupied by Sophia, and when the woman appeared at the door she said:

"Look heah! Missouri, whar's mer munny whut yer took from me?"

"What I know 'bout yo' munny?" quickly retorted the man. "Don't yo' kno' dat I wouldn't take er cent frum a gal like you? You knows I's allurs been true ter you."

"Yer name's Missouri, an' yer got to show me," aptly responded the woman.

"I am reminded that his name is Missouri, and he's got to show me," interrupted Marshal Arnow, as he proceeded to search the man, whereupon he discovered the empty pocketbook which the woman recognized—but there was nothing in it.

Missouri was given a sentence of $5 and cost or thirty days. He took the thirty days, and is now engaged in cleaning up the streets for a salary of about 30 cents a day. Cheaper to go at free labor, earn a dollar and a quarter, sleep well at night, and save the disgrace of being worked as a prisoner.

Joe Russell, for being disorderly, was fined $5 and costs, which were promptly paid.

SUPPOSED MAD DOG RUNNING AT LARGE

Canine Bit Two Colored Children In Northwest Gainesville.

ANIMAL ACTING STRANGELY

Was Roving About the Streets, Foaming at the Mouth, and Altogether Gave Appearance of Being Affected With Hydrophobia.

The people of Northwest Gainesville, in the vicinity of West Church and North Arredondo streets, have been excited for the past day or two on account of the appearance in that community of a dog which bore every indication of being afflicted with hydrophobia. The canine wandered about the streets blindly, foaming at the mouth, and bit two colored children, one of whom was LeRoy, the little son of John Feamster, who conducts a grocery and market at the corner of West Church and North Fifth streets. The name of the other child could not be learned.

The residents of that section are using the greatest precaution to keep their children in.

The canine is a small, brown, shaggy dog, and its owner is not known.

Marshal Arnow has been notified, and will keep a lookout. In the meantime, it would be well for those in that immediate vicinity to be cautious.

SECOND ADVENT CHURCH.

A Most Successful Series of Meetings Were Closed Tuesday Night.

The series of meetings of the Advent Christian church, which have been conducted by Elder Joe Sherouse of Jacksonville with the church in this city for the past ten days, have been of the greatest benefit to the people of this section, for Elder Sherouse, who is an eloquent though impressive and simple speaker, has attracted large crowds, and in his own impressive manner has talked in a strain that must necessarily benefit the church and the Christian world.

Elder Sherouse is a man in love with his work. He is not preaching for financial gain, as is evidenced by the fact that he has been working here, where the congregation of the Advent Christian church is very small; but he is preaching because he believes his principles are right, and the result is that he has enjoyed a most remarkable success.

The last meeting was held on Tuesday night, as Elder Sherouse must return to Jacksonville. This distinguished worker for his faith has been ably assisted here by Elder James Lee, the regular pastor of the church, and together they have enjoyed most remarkable success.

Streets Are Dusty.

The condition of the streets for the past few days, especially those which have been torn up by the sewerage work, are almost unbearable, as far as dust is concerned. The passing teams have been constantly stirring up a continuous bed of dust which, fanned by the little breeze which has been blowing, has filled the pedestrians' noses and eyes with a disagreeable powder. It it to be hoped that this work will be completed soon, in order that the streets may be again placed in proper condition.

No, they do not, but Herpicide does because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

SECOND DAY OF CIRCUIT COURT

Case of Stringfellow Vs. Vaughn Seed Store Still In Progress.

A MOST IMPORTANT MEASURE

Case Involves a Good Sum, and is Being Vigorously Contested by Both Sides—Said that Witnesses Are Here from Various Cities to Testify.

There was "nothing doing" in the circuit court Tuesday, save the long-drawn-out testimony of several witnesses in the case of J. D. Stringfellow vs. the Vaughn Seed Store, which appears to be one of the most strenuous civil cases ever heard in this county, both sides being determined in the matter of securing a verdict favorable.

This is the case mentioned in yesterday's Sun where J. D. Stringfellow is suing the Vaughn Seed Store for $1,900 damages, alleged to have occrued from impure and non-propagating seed furnished to Mr. Stringfellow, who is an extensive and successful trucker, by the defendant, which is a large seed store in Chicago.

Mr. Stringfellow claims that certain seeds, mainly cucumbers, did not produce the result, neither in yield or quality.

The case consumed part of Monday afternoon, all of Tuesday, and will probably occupy the entire time of the court today. The outcome will be watched with a great deal of interest, as eminent talent has been employed on both sides, the defendants sending a lawyer, Attorney McGhee, all the way from Chicago. It is said that there are also witnesses, commission merchants and others, from Baltimore and other points, to testify in the case.

It is probably not so much the direct loss of judgment in this case, should one be secured, against the defendant, but a question of the firm's reputation in Florida, upon which the fight is being made by the Vaughn Seed Company, which is an old established firm, and which enjoys a large and profitable trade throughout Florida.

"THE OLD WORLD AND ITS WAYS"

Col. William Jennings Bryan announces a new book of travel entitled "The Old World and Its Ways," which recounts his recent tour around the world and his journeys through Europe. It is profusely and elegantly illustrated with 240 artistic engravings representing men and things seen in the various countries of the earth during that noted journey. The engravings are made from photographs taken by him or his party especially for this publication. It is the monumental literary work of his life, and is published under his special supervision. He has, by special contract with his publishers, made the retail price low down with the view to putting it within the easy reach of every reader and book buyer.

The book gives his experiences—what he saw and did—whom he met and his impressions and conclusions. He made a profound study of men and things as he saw them in this noted journey around the world. He gives governmental, educational, religious and other conditions, from the standpoint of a student and one profoundly interested in all the people of the earth.

While Col. Bryan traveled as a private citizen he went with the prestige of having made two memorable contests for the Presidency of the United States, and he was everywhere recognized and entertained as a great representative American, having a leading part in the direction of American affairs. He was given opportunity for observations never before accorded to anyone traveling in private capacity.

If one wants to see the world, and the people who are at the head of affairs in all countries, as well as the masses, he has in this book an opportunity of seeing them through the eyes of Col. William Jennings Bryan. It is sold by subscription, and the Thompson Publishing Company of St. Louis, Mo., are the fortunate publishers. They offer an especially inviting opportunity to soliciters in another column of this issue.

To Our Friends and Patrons.

The closing of our banking department is now fixed for the 5th of July. This will be immediately succeeded by The Dutton Bank, a State institution organized by and to be conducted and managed by some of the most reliable and conservative men of the city and vicinity.

All deposits in the bank of H. F. Dutton & Co. will be transferred to the new bank, unless otherwise directed by the depositors, and business will continue without change or interruption of any kind. The new bank will forward receipts and all necessary papers to the depositors.

Parties holding time certificates of deposit can have them redeemed at once, with interest, or can hold them until their maturity, to suit the wishes or convenience of the holder. The new bank will issue certificates with like conditions if parties so desire.

We bespeak for our successors the same liberal patronage that we have received. They are men so well known in this vicinity that they will have already secured the confidence of others as they have of ourselves. They ask for your patronage, and will return in favors as liberal as a conservative method of doing business will permit. If our old depositors, who have been with us so many years, will extend to them the same confidence, favors and patronage that they have so liberally given us, they will add to the many obligations under which they have already placed us.

H. F. Dutton & Co. will handle cotton (bales of cotton) as usual at the old stand. Very sincerely,

H. F. DUTTON & CO.

THE NEW REMEDY.

Take It Now that Vacation Days Are Fast Approaching.

Thousands of men and women are anxiously looking forward to the vacation days that come in June, July and August—not so much for the pleasure or enjoyment as for the chance of getting rid of their ill health.

To thoroughly drive away troubles of the stomach most people think they have to make a business of it with dieting, exercise, and perhaps a vacation.

But Mi-o-na stomach tablets taken with regularity, in a very few days will drive away indigestion, dizzy spells, distress after eating, headaches, sleeplessness, and the many other symptoms of bad digestion and sluggishness of the digestive organs that keep people from enjoying themselves. Day after day, at work behind desks or in the factory with poor sunlight and air, soon results in sluggishness of the entire physical and mental apparatus. The first slight symptoms of indigestion can easily be cured but when they are allowed to increase without any help, then the stomach complaints become hard to shake off.

Strengthen the whole digestive system with Mi-o-na and you will soon find that both stomach and bowels do their work as they should.

J. W. McCollum sells Mi-o-na in 50-cent boxes and guarantees to refund the money if the remedy does not give complete satisfaction.

Henderson As a Peach Grower.

F. P. Henderson of Arno, the nurseryman and peach grower, is in the city attending court.

Mr. Henderson is about to make his last shipment of the early crop of peaches, which has proved quite prolific. He will have a late crop. Mr. Henderson owns one of the most prolific orchards in this section of the State. While not so large as many, it is a prolific bearer.

Tetter Cured.

A lady customer of ours had suffered with tetter for two or three years. It got so bad on her hands that she could not attend to her household duties. One box of Chamberlain's Salve cured her. Chamberlain's medicines give splendid satisfaction in this community.—M. H. Rodney & Co., Almond, Ala. Chamberlain's medicines are for sale by all druggists.

Fifty Per Cent in Alabama.

Montgomery, Ala., June 11.—President Seymour, of the Alabama division of the Cotton Growers' association, gives out a statement in which he shows that the condition of cotton at this time is not much above 50 per cent. The stands are poor and badly in the grass. Only the best weather from now on can assure anything like a crop.

EQUAL RIGHTS TO ALL.

It must be taken for granted that every Democrat would like to see another President elected who believes in the good old Jeffersonian doctrine of "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none." No one but Democrats rest their political faith on that comprehensive declaration. To Republicans of today it must be incomprehensible that any political party should demand "equal rights to all," for that would abolish the tariff schedules that foster and protect the trusts; it would compel the wealthy to pay taxes according to their incomes and property; it would abolish sumptuary legislation and implies freedom from restraint in every way that would not interfere with the welfare of others. "Special privileges to none" would abolish nearly all the legislation that the Republican party has enacted; that has fostered trusts and corporations; that has favored national banks; that has benefited capital at the expense of labor; that taxes without representation; that favors subsidies; that has created sectional strife and usurped executive powers unknown to the constitution.

To Democrats all such granting of unequal rights and special privileges is a crime against the people. It has been accomplished by corrupting elections with the campaign funds contributed by those who have benefited by such special privileges.

To overthrow such corrupt system of favoritism is incentive enough to arouse every honest voter and will certainly unite Democrats to that end. Trust high prices and the increasing cost of living should lead many Republicans to join with the Democrats in reforming the tariff and other abuses that but few any longer deny as existing.

The Southern States have especially suffered from this Republican system of fostering special interests, which no doubt leads to the demand for a candidate from the South for the Democratic nomination for President. Nearly every Southern State is urging its favorite son and as the solid South is the citadel of Democracy, it cannot be gainsaid these prospective candidates are entitled to the earnest consideration of Democrats everywhere, and if it can be shown that Senator Daniel or Judge Culberson or any other candidate that has been suggested can unite the Democratic factions he will undoubtedly receive due deliberation from the delegates to the next national convention. The generous rivalry between these candidates from the Southern States is a healthy sign that sectionalism has in a great measure been obliterated and that the prospect that the banner inscribed with "equal rights to all and special privileges to none" will lead to victory.

It is amusing to notice the antics of Republican politicians on the tariff issue. Those who are talking revision are very loath to say how much reform they favor and when Congress should act. They all, however, revisionists and standpatters, agree that nothing can be done by the Congress to meet next December and that any thought of tariff tinkering must be postponed until after March 4, 1909. This procrastination is an indication of how little real reform the people may expect at the hands of a Republican Congress.

According to the census figures, there are 4,833,630 breadwinners among the women of this country. If there were that many good breadmakers among them, there would be a falling off in the demand for dyspepsia tablets.

AN UNWEPT DEMISE.

(From The Pensacola Journal.)

No one will grieve over the demise of The Chicago Chronicle, which passed in its checks last Friday.

The Chronicle was the property of John R. Walsh, the banker, who is now under indictment for bankwrecking, and who lost hundreds of thousands of dollars in an unsuccessful attempt to foist on the people of Chicago a newspaper which no one wanted and in a field already covered.

The Chronicle was established May 28, 1895, and it suspended May 31, 1907, having lived exactly 12 years and three days, and having lost probably over $100,000 a year or considerably more than a million dollars during the time. The paper was ostensibly Democratic, but it supported McKinley in 1896, knifed Bryan in 1900, and after helping pawn the Parker gold brick off on the Democracy in 1904, openly went over to the Republican party. It was one of the most ably edited and completely equipped papers in the country, but it was organized in a spirit of personal malice, its whole object was the gratification of that malice, and it lost money and died, as it deserved to do. As The Montgomery Journal says:

"The Chronicle attempted to create a demand for a newspaper where there was no demand—in a field already well filled—and it had to go where so many others with like missions to "fill a long felt want," have gone before it. But its management, tiring of the effort, tiring of losing money, wisely and sensibly concluded the best thing to do was to quit the field and leave it to others. But there was no more ably edited or more reliable newspaper in Chicago than The Chronicle; and it was not its policy, not the lack of ability in its management, but rather its attempt to create a demand for another paper, where there was no demand, that made it a losing proposition, and finally caused it to turn its toes to the daisies."

The fate of The Chronicle ought to prove a warning to any other vindictive millionaires who imagine that money is all that is necessary to make a successful newspaper.

The question whether Tom Lawson has made peace with the "Frenzied Financiers" is not so much in doubt since he has declared "that Mr. Roosevelt is absolutely sure" of being "the next President of the United States." That is the position of nearly all the frenzied financiers, for they have taken the President at his own word to Mr. Harriman as being a "practical" politician. Practical politics makes all Republicans look alike to most of us.

PARIS THEATERS.

Manners and Customs That Strike an American as Peculiar.

It is not the play or the acting or the applause that attracts and holds the attention of the American who is attending for the first time a Parisian opening. It is the audience. In the first place, the predominance of men in the best orchestra seats will provoke a question which brings forth the information that in the majority of the better class theaters in Paris the first three rows of the orchestra are sold almost exclusively to men, and, as far as it is possible, the box office favors men for the body of the house, principally because they do not wear hats and do not therefore obstruct the view of those sitting behind. Before the curtain goes up the stranger glances about and is surprised to discover jewels and gowns decollete in the highest balconies, the part of the theater known in America as "peanut heaven." Both men and women, dressed as for a grand ball, are perched away up at least three flights of stairs, and during entr'actes they come down and promenade with the others and visit their friends, and few are the wiser as to the location of their seats. The very fact of being present at an important opening is enough to give a certain social precedence, even though they sat on the rafters or clung to the chandeliers.

Another feature which attracts the American is that during the entr'actes the men who do not join the promenade stand up and don their hats the moment the curtain is down, and they spend the entire twenty or twenty-five minutes inspecting their neighbors through opera glasses. There is much activity in the balconies and in the boxes, caused by the social calls which are being exchanged. In the orchestra rows and family circles the men and the women stand up, and opera glasses are used freely by both, and many little flirtations are enjoyed between those in the balconies, or loges, and those on the first floor.

It is not considered rude to level glasses at any one, whether within a few feet or up in the balcony, but it is rather considered a compliment to the face or more often the shoulder that attracts such close inspection. It is true that the French are famed for their polished manner, but it is equally true that in the eyes of an American the roughest cowboy possesses a better appreciation of refinement than the dapperest member of the French nobility, and especially is this noticeable in a theater.—Harriet Quimby in Leslie's Weekly.

IN THE BRITISH NAVY.

The ship's bell is struck every half hour to announce the time.

The quarter deck must always be saluted on being approached.

The master at arms or chief of police is the only man in the ship, not being an officer, allowed to wear a sword.

From the minute a ship commissions to the day of paying off there is always an officer on watch day and night without intermission.

Grog is always mixed with three parts water before being served out to the men. Warrant officers and petty officers alone receive it undiluted.

At any time of the day or night a man may be called upon for duty if necessary. Leave to go on shore is regarded as a privilege and not a right.

An officer's sword at a court martial is laid on the table, point toward him, when he enters to hear the finding if he has been adjudged guilty. It is reversed if he is acquitted.

In New York's Swell Restaurants.

The tables that appear to be reserved in the fashionable Fifth avenue restaurants are very rarely occupied by the persons whose names appear on the slip which the waiter sticks into a glass to show that Mr. Smith or Mr. Jones is expected. "We have to put some tables out of the reach of the public," one of the head waiters told a reporter, "as there are certain patrons whom we could not afford to send away. The only way of doing that is to pretend that we are reserving the tables for somebody. Then when a patron whom we could not possibly refuse arrives and must have a place we can always tell him that the table was taken, but that the parties have not turned up. That satisfies him and keeps other guests quiet as well."—New York Sun.

Music as an Adjunct to Education.

It has come to be very generally recognized that music is a great factor in education. Robert Foresman in the Musical Standard says: "It helps the other branches by accustoming the children to respond to their impressions by teaching them how to express themselves freely and naturally. It may be made to help the enunciation in reading; it may be made to emphasize and illumine the facts in history; it may be utilized for the purpose of making poetical expressions more perfect. It is possible to reproduce the real life and soul of music, to have the vital phase of the thing itself as an influence and an inspiration for all whether they sing or listen."

NAMES FOR BIG GUNS.

Two Significant Ones That Were Selected and Rejected.

At the Fort Pitt foundry, Fort Pitt, Pa., were cast in 1867 for the monitor Puritan two twenty-inch guns, which Captain W. C. Wise, then chief of the naval bureau of ordnance, proposed to call Satan and Lucifer. This proposition called forth a protest from the pastor of a Presbyterian church at Pittsburg, who characterized it as "most unseemly, if not impious." His letter was referred by the member of congress to whom it was addressed to the department and finally came into the hands of Captain Wise for reply. In answer he called attention to the foreign custom of giving to vessels such names as Jupiter, Juno, Vulcan, Venus, Juggernaut, Inferno and Lucifer and Satan to convey an idea of the power of the destructive agent used in battle. These guns, argued the learned captain, were not intended for peace and the utterance of good will toward men, but to inflict as much mischief and destruction on human beings in time of war as their namesake, the devil, tries to do at all times. He further reminded his clerical critic that a number of clergymen had witnessed without protest his act of "christening" in presence of a large assembly of ladies and gentlemen the first twenty inch gun cast for the navy as Beelzebub. However, the argument did not prevail, for religious sentiment was effective in preventing this use of Biblical nomenclature.—Army and Navy Journal.

TOUGHS OF PARIS.

They Are Known as "Apaches" and Work In Gangs.

Les Apaches—

They work in gangs. In the underworld their associations are complete and distinct. Fame has come to them—to the gang of Bebert of Montparno, of Gegene of the Courtille, the Green Cravats, the Costands of the Villette, the Mont-en-l'air of the Batignolles. Against these bands the police war in vain. They wage their battles in open day—for some "mome" that Bebert has stolen from Gegene. A band comes down from the heights of Belleville or of Charonne and raids a peaceful quarter—a home going cab is surrounded, the passenger stabbed through the window and robbed. They prey on the public. Band wars upon band. There are nightly duels on the fortifications or under the bridges—when the Beau Totor meets Poigne d'Acier, knife to knife, in a savage and not unloyal way. Young all, from sixteen to twenty-two, rarely older. Where do they come from? Everywhere. They grow on the pavements of Paris, along the gutters—foundlings or deserted children, sons perhaps of that laboring class which is on the edge of crime and beggary. The life of the Apache is short, but for every one sent to the jail or the guillotine two stand ready at the door of the slums. They used to haunt the den of the Pere Lunette.—From "The Slums of Paris," by Vance Thompson, in Outing Magazine.

Its Hours.

"This watch will last a lifetime," remarked the jeweler as he handed the watch to the customer.

"Nonsense!" retorted the other. "Can't I see for myself that its hours are numbered?"

HAYWOOD TRIAL AT BOISE.

Harry Orchard, Star Witness, Still Under Cross Examination.

Boise, Idaho, June 11.—Cross-examination of of Harry Orchard, by his own confession the slayer of 18 men with bullet and bomb, is likely to last through Tuesday, and possibly longer.

Orchard has now been on the stand for 14 hours. The state had him in hand for nearly eight hours. At this time he told a horrible tale of crime that spread over the last eleven years of his life, the first thirty years being the commonplace story of a Canadian farm hand. But beginning with 1897, he unfolded a career in which, to use the language of the leading counsel for the state, "Assassination was a trade and murder a means of livelihood."

Orchard spared no incident of his more recent life, under the questioning of the state, that might prove to the jury his readiness to slaughter for low wages and how indifferent he had been as to the number or condition of his victims.

The story brought out by the state was, however, merely a synopsis of the play whose acts cover the years since 1899. In every act the climax sent a shudder through a crowded court room.

Under cross-examination by E. F. Richardson, counsel for W. D. Haywood, Orchard has so far developed this series of tragedies up to the year 1904. Three more years and many murders are yet to be analyzed. For purposes of its own, not so far revealed, the defense is determined that Orchard shall retell his life story to the most diabolical, or the most squalid, detail before the men who are to pass upon the question whether W. D. Haywood is guilty of hiring Orchard to murder former Governor Frank Steunenberg, at Caldwell, Idaho, on December 30, 1905.

Slowly but surely the defense is developing the lines by which it hopes to break down the story of Harry Orchard, so far as it affects Haywood.

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must, from necessity, be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pains.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.

Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.

One bottle of each of these five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale by all druggists.

Fire Destroys Uplands' Hotel.

Eastman, Ga., June 11.—The Uplands hotel, a large wooden structure was destroyed by fire at an early hour on Sunday morning. The alarm was given about 2:30 o'clock, and within an hour the building was in ashes. For a time a large number of buildings within reach of the great rain of sparks that fell were immediately threatened. It is believed that the Southern depot escaped only, because of having a tile roof. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Shot Italian Six Times.

Savannah, Ga., June 11.—Policeman T. R. Avaunt emptied his pistol into Napoleon Sevirol, an Italian, on Sunday morning. Sevirol died while on the way to the police station. He had been shot twice in the head and four times in the body. The officer's coat was cut in three places, but the knife used by Sevirol had failed to reach Avaunt's flesh. Avaunt had been shadowing the Italian, whose actions had excited his suspicions.

Do Not Neglect the Children.

At this season of the year the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention. The best thing that can be given is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by castor oil as directed with each bottle of the Remedy. For sale by all druggists.

"Having taken your wonderful "Cascarets" for three months and being entirely cured of stomach catarrh and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to "Cascarets" for their wonderful composition. TOWN IN TERROR.

Parker, Colo., Patrolled by Soldiers Night and Day.

Parker, Colo., June 11.—Fearing an attempt to burn the saloon of L. F. Lambert, which probably would result in the destruction of the entire town, Parker is under guard night and day.

A squad of soldiers from Fort Logan is patrolling the main street and outskirts and the townspeople are in a state of terror.

Lambert charged a soldier Friday night, it is claimed, and when the latter protested, emptied his revolver into a squad of twenty, injuring two so badly that their lives were despaired of. He escaped after the shooting and friends of the wounded men have vowed they will get vengeance by burning the building.

Intense feeling prevails against Lambert. He has been captured.

Cigar Famine Possible.

New York, June 11.—A famine in Havana cigars is threatened should the strike of cigar-makers in the Cuban capital continue much longer. Dealers throughout the city have been informed by the importing jobbers that most of the popular brands of Havana cigars, especially those in the dark colors, are exhausted. The strike has now lasted three weeks. Prices are gradually going up.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers.

Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, Oct. 27, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Race from Pekin to Paris.

Pekin, June 11.—Three French, one Dutch and one Italian motor cars started Monday morning in the Pekin-to-Paris race. They were given an enthusiastic send off by the foreign residents, including the American, Austrian and French ministers. A French band played selections. The Chinese were much astonished, as this was the first time motor cars had been seen in Pekin.

THE POCKET SAVINGS BANK EPIDEMIC RAGES FIERCELY ....IN GAINESVILLE....

Beneficent epidemics are scarce, but such a one has struck Gainesville, and people of every station and occupation have the fever.

It is most interesting and instructive to study the constantly changing line of applicants for Pocket Banks as it files through The Sun's business office. There is the mother, bringing her daughter with her and securing a bank for the girl, another for herself, and inquiring anxiously whether she may have another for the boy who is at work. She receives it promptly.

Boys come—some are steady, serious-faced chaps who have begun to think on their own account, and who ask questions about the operation of the scheme which show the results of rubbing up against the world.

Then the High School girls and boys, gay and active, while the workman and business man "slip in" during the noon hour to get a bank for the boy or girl at home, after asking one or two leading questions to make sure there is no joke about the 25 cents.

Center Lodge No. 11, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, held a fine memorial service at the Masonic hall, where the order always holds its sessions, Monday night.

The service was a public one, and was not only attended by members of the order, but many citizens as well, including a number of ladies, all of whom were deeply impressed with the beautiful and impressive ritualistic ceremonies of the order. There were many addresses on the good of the order by the pioneer members of the lodge, old war-horses in Odd-Fellowship.

The meeting was presided over by Captain J. W. Blanding, while Robt. McClellan acted as master of ceremonies.

Refreshing lemonade was served during the evening.

How People Lose Their Money.

By concealing it about their person; by stowing it away in mugs, jugs and jars; by sewing it up in skirts and ticks; by tucking it under the couches and carpets, in cupboards and bureau drawers; these are some of the ways by which people lose their money, and sometimes their lives.

How People Save Their Money.

By depositing it in a good, reliable bank. Confident that this bank fully meets the public's needs, we tender its services to all who believe in keeping on the safe side.
